Business Title: On-Call Ocular Recovery Technician (4 positions available)
System Title: Technician, Ocular Program / Orlando Program
Location: Orlando, FL
Reporting to: Program Manager

Purpose:
Recovery of donated tissue that enhances and improves lives globally.

Key Areas of Responsibility:
May perform all or some of the following and operates in accordance with our stated operating procedures while upholding our corporate values.

Tissue Recovery
- Recovers donated tissue from all sources following TBI standard procedures.
- Accepts on-call responsibilities for tissue recovery as scheduled.

Laboratory Support and Maintenance
- Performs other duties as needed or assigned in lab maintenance, quality control, training and research.

Documentation and Record Keeping
- Maintains documentation of in-process tissue as required, updating records at each step in the process.
- Maintains confidentiality of donor related information.

Key Qualifications, Requirements and Attributes:
- A passion for enhancing the lives of others.
- A high degree of respect for the gift we are entrusted to steward.
- Ability to solve practical problems and deal with a variety of variables in compliance through standard operating procedures.
- Associates degree or higher or equivalent education/experience in an allied health care field.
- Must have valid driver’s license with an insurable driving record.
- Strong interpersonal and organizational skills; excellent attention to detail and ability to coordinate multiple activities.
- MUST be available to work a 7-day schedule as needed or schedule rotation including nights & weekends.

Why TBI?
Joining TBI means being a part of a global health care team who is passionate about serving others, values integrity and quality, and recognizes the power of relationships. TBI is recognized as a leading innovator in biological implants allowing surgeons to eradicate blindness and enhance mobility in their patients every day. We offer a competitive salary for this position.

How to Apply
To apply, please email resume to jobs@tbionline.org TBI is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Candidates must be presently eligible to work in the U.S.